Secure Your Seat and Critical Skills for Managing Emergency Situations

Meet legal training requirements

Gain lifesaving skills

15% OFF Regular rate

Special rate for clients who demand trusted, quality training.

All businesses covered by the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act (WSIA) are required to have first aid equipment, dedicated space and trained personnel who are readily accessible in all workplaces. Training courses and providers must be approved by the Workplace Safety & Insurance Board (WSIB).

Workers Health & Safety Centre (WHSC) is the first and only of Ontario's Health and Safety Associations, approved by the WSIB to deliver our own first aid and CPR courses. So, train with WHSC and be assured you will meet first aid training requirements set by the WSIB for businesses covered under the WSIA. Our training is also aligned with the CSA Z1210:24 national standard for first aid training.

Our WSIB-approved first aid and CPR courses are instructor-led from start to finish to ensure skills are demonstrated and learning is achieved. Upon completion, participants receive a record of training valid for three years.

Introductory discount available for a limited time

Empowerment to aid those in need

First aid and CPR training is much more than just ticking off a box to meet a mandated minimum standard. Training empowers workers, supervisors, and others to manage emergency situations. Participants develop practical skills and confidence to recognize emergencies, respond effectively, and provide care until first responders or medical professionals can intervene.

Register by December 18 to ensure your training seat and discount.
