

Saturday October 22, 2016
10am -2pm

Knowledge Activism and Health and Safety– the Challenge and the Promise

McMaster University, Burke Science Building Room106, Hamilton

AGENDA

Welcome – Robert Storey, McMaster University; Dave Wilken, Occupational Health Clinics for Ontario Workers (OHCOW); Andrew King, Labour OHCOW Academic Collaboration (LOARC).

Roundtable 1 – Why Knowledge Activism?

Alan Hall, Memorial University; Ellen Simmons, Workers' Health and Safety Centre (WHSC); Nancy Johnson, Ontario Nurses Association (ONA).

Roundtable 2 – Dealing with Harassment and Violence

Vern Edwards, Ontario Federation of Labour (OFL); Andréane Chénier, Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE); Laura Lozanski, Canadian Association of University Teachers (CAUT).

Roundtable 3 – Tools and Strategies

John Oudyk, OHCOW; Andrew King, LOARC.

Please register by October 18 by emailing kingan@mcmaster.ca so we can provide lunch at the end of the session.

